

O BEAUTIFUL FOR SPACIOUS SKIES were reminding Placentians this week of the richness of their surroundings. Repeated rains had washed the smog away and gave local residents a spectacular view of skies, clouds and snow-capped mountains. Southern Californians have the rare privilege of enjoying a panorama of beautiful scenery and weather that attracts visitors from all over the world. The rains came and everything glittered once more.

A Closer Look

How much crime would we find bearable in the city of Placentia? Up to the point where it affects each one of us personally? Our lives? Our property?

Is there a comfortably acceptable level?

Fortunately major crimes...murder...homicide...rape are of low incidence. Kept that way by a watchful, but low-profile police department, which is nevertheless ever mindful of the foibles and diversions of human nature.

Currently the Placentia Police Department is concerned over the high incidence of burglaries. Many of them committed by juveniles... more than half. And many perpetrated in broad daylight.

The department and diligent volunteers from the Placentia Junior Round Table are now conducting a house-to-house program to talk us into helping ourselves. They have instruments that will put identification numbers on all our valuables, so that if anything is stolen and recovered, it can be properly returned to the victim.

That is one deterrent to crime. Another is for all of us to be more conscientious in our habits. It may be easier to leave a garage full of valuables unlocked. And quicker to allow keys to remain in a car's ignition, where they are easy to find.

Until, of course, the valuables and the car are stolen. Then it's a lot more trouble and some youngsters may have been tempted by what might appear to him to be our casual unconcern for the security of our worldly possessions.

What does our police protection cost us? Too much to be casual about it. In next year's budget for the city of Placentia, the Chief of Police will be seeking four more officers.

What does an officer cost? $18,000 a year in salary and fringe benefits. That does not include overtime...nor support...nor uniforms...nor patrol car nor gasoline to keep it moving around.

Whether that is a proper price is outside the argument here. This is what it is costing us right now.

Any carelessness we practice can only add to the figure.

An acceptable level of crime would scarcely be one that touches us personally nor the lives of anyone we know and love. To avoid that unacceptable level, it may behoove us to be ever more watchful, careful and prudent.

Our diligence and conscientiousness can be rewarding. The crime we save could be our own.

CHAIRMEN NAMED

Lee Van Gorden was elected chairman of the Placentia Planning Commission at the group's last meeting. Named vice chairman was William Beggerly, veteran member of the body.

The commission is now functioning with five members with the recent resignations of Chairman William Rashford and Robert Bircher to run for the city council.

EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR AWARD was bestowed last week on Mrs. Judy Behle, a sixth grade teacher at Wagner Elementary School. Mrs. Behle was singled out from all the entrants in the state of California in competition sponsored by the Jaycees. With Mrs. Behle is student Andrea Dingman. The last time a Behle appeared on page one of the Placentia Courier, it was the Behles three attractive blond sons pictured July 30, 1975, holding a trophy they had won at the Orange County Fair. The brothers then were Roger, 8; Curt, 6; Aaron, 4. [Story on Page 11].

City Wins Disagreement

An opinion favorable to the city of Placentia, concerning acreage north of Imperial Highway and west of Rose Drive, has been handed down by the Superior Court of Santa Ana.

The court hearing concerned a disagreement between the city of Placentia and Fredricks Development Corporation of Anaheim, over permission to build high density apartments on an 18-acre parcel.

Plans for the 268-unit, 25-units-to-the-acre development were at one time underway before it was realized that the project was planned for a special Planned Unit Development zone, which city council members contended had been specified to lower the density.

The differences of opinion ended in the courts where Superior Court Judge Claude Owens found in favor of the city. Placentia City Attorney Charles Post III reported this week.

Fredricks had petitioned the court to order Placentia to issue a building permit for the high density development which would have been immediately adjacent to homes in Placentia on rural acreages. The petition was denied, Post explained.

The contention in the issue was whether the PUD zoning forced a lower density or left it optional to the builder to permit the higher density development.

Zoning on the property now is Residential-Agricultural, since changed by the present city council. Post said that the recent changes were not considered as germane in the case.

Kraemers Sell School Site

A price of $228,500 for a Placentia Unified School District elementary school site in Anaheim, has been agreed upon between the principals.

Owners of the property are Geraldine Roth, Gilbert U. Kraemer, Daniel G. Kraemer, Harold W. Muckenthaler, Angelina Kraemer, Evelyn Kraemer Francuz, Janice Mae De Coursey, Donald James Kraemer, Karen Jean Kraemer Spalek, Esther Kraemer, Beverly Brennan, Arthur Middleton, Shirley Muckenthaler, Richard Francuz, Patricia Lenore Kraemer, Robert Samuel Kraemer, Lawrence Prudencio Kraemer, Jr. and Rosemary Kraemer Lokey.

The acreage is located on La Palma Avenue, east of Imperial Highway. Construction will begin on the school as soon as pupil population will justify the additional square footage approval required from the state.

Sierra Vista Area To Be Discussed

A special meeting to take action on a proposed attendance boundary change has been called by trustees of the Placentia Unified School District for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, February 18, at Sierra Vista Elementary School, 1811 N. Placentia Ave.

Board members will receive the report and recommendations of the Educational Facilities Planning Committee (EFPC) on the overcrowding problem at Sierra Vista.

An informal report given to trustees by EFPC co-chairman Ruth Leonard last week proposed moving the area bounded by Bastanchury, Tuffree, Livingston and Kraemer from Sierra Vista school into the Brookhaven Elementary attendance area, where classroom space is available.

The EFPC is a committee of community residents appointed by trustees to study the district's housing problems and recommend alternatives and solutions. Final decisions are made by the trustees.

Chapman Widening Study Progresses

A second phase of the widening of Chapman Avenue between Murray Street and Angelina Drive has been narrowly approved by the Placentia City Council and is expected to be implemented as soon as the projects can be accomplished.

In the phase two proposal for the widening is a contract for precise drawings of the route four alignment, selected by the council determination of rights of way acquisition areas, legal descriptions and maps, street, traffic, signal and drainage improvement plans, contract bid documents, cost estimates, utility coordination and related work. Ben Minamide, Director of Community Development outlined.

Also included will be the formation of an underground utility district for power and telephone lines.

"All work described above will be undertaken by Governmental Professional Services for a maximum fee of $24,800," Minamide reports.

"Design and alignment surveying will also be done at a cost not to exceed $6,660," Minamide added. "It is expected that the above work will take six months to complete."

Other services yet to be secured include a rights-of-way acquisition negotiator to acquire 22 parcels (including five corner cut offs) relocation assistance coordinator for seven units and a possible second appraiser for independent appraisals if necessary. Minamide outlined.

Monies and projects already expended include an alignment study for $6,200; environmental impact report for $7,200 and appraisal fees to Patrick Gavin of $1,000.

Minamide explained that the project is being financed with city gas funds and 50 per cent matching money from the Orange County Arterial Highway Financing Program. So far the county has contributed $100,000 for engineering. [Continued on Page 2]

Homeowners Lose Brea-Union Oil Suit

A legal action brought in Superior Court by members of the Placentia Golden Homeowners Association against the city of Brea, Moreland Development Company and Union Oil Company, has been decided in favor of the defendants, it was announced last week.

The homeowners group has not indicated whether they will appeal the decision to the Appellate Court.

The controversy originally arose over the placing of a large industrial tract in Brea immediately in back of the $70,000 Placentia homes. The homeowners, who are in the city of Placentia protested the site development plans which allowed a 20 foot buffer between the two divergent zonings.

Moreland Development Company, developers of the 83-acre property, is a subsidiary of the Union Oil Company.

At the first hearings in Brea on the industrial tract development, Moreland had sought permission to use the homeowners block walls to avoid having to build similar abutments. The 20 foot buffer was added later.

Decisions in the case have not as yet been forwarded to the plaintiffs so reasons for the determination by the court are still not known, the homeowners report.

The area in conflict is north of Golden Avenue, between Kraemer Boulevard and Valencia Avenue.

Subscriptions Send Child To Olympics

Subscriptions to The Placentia Courier will assist a local Educable Mentally Retarded (EMR) child athlete to go to the Special Olympic Games next July, the Placentia Junior Round Table explained this week.

All new subscriptions to The Courier, channelled through the Junior Round Table members and up to one year renewals, will provide funds for the organization's special project.

The Courier, which costs only $5 a year to subscribers, as a public service, allows organizations selling new subscriptions, to keep $2 from each of the listings.

The Juniors have designated their special project to serve an Educable Mentally Retarded child athlete. Subscriptions will be gladly accepted, Daphne Erikson, a member of the group stated. Residents interested in supporting the project are invited to contact any member of the Junior Round Table or Mrs. Erikson at 993-2093.

Persons wishing to submit names of possible candidates for the Olympics, may forward details to the Chairman, Mental Health Committee, Placentia Junior Round Table, P.O. Box 923, Placentia, California 92670, Mrs. Erikson outlined.

Heritage Festival Names Dates

Placentia Heritage Festival Days 12th annual event will be held from October 2 through October 10 this year, the board of directors voted Thursday night.

Special events are anticipated for this year's Bicentennial effort, which will include the annual pancake breakfast, parade and Picnic-in-the-Park, Dick Samp, president of the group outlined.

THIS MANY OF US

According to the mid-decade census just completed in Placentia, the city's population now stands at 31,238. Also the exact area of the city has now been measured at 6.69 square miles.

Dean Davisson To Run For Assembly

Dean Davisson, 53, Knott's Berry Farm public relations manager, today announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination in the 69th Assembly District.

Davisson, a resident of Fullerton, has a long record of community service. He is the Orange County Crusade Chairman for the American Cancer Society, vice president of the Buena Park Historical Society, an Elder in the Placentia Presbyterian Church, and serves on the Manpower Resources Committee of the Boy Scouts of America.

A member of the Republican Central Committee of Orange County since 1971, Davisson has worked in many local elections as well as actively campaigned for Republican candidates. He is past

DEAN DAVISSON

Chairman of the Board of Governors of Republican Associates of Orange County and currently serves as a member of the board.

Davisson, who has been with Knott's for 18 years, said he is resigning March 1 to devote his full time and interest to the campaign.

The 69th District includes precincts in all or part of the seven cities of Anaheim, Brea, Buena Park, Fullerton, Garden Grove, La Habra, and Placentia. The 69th District is represented by John Briggs who is expected to announce for the 35th District State Senate seat.

"I am concerned, as we all are, about our schools, our government, and the safety of all our citizens," says Davisson.

"I would like to see that our State Legislature provides an affordable government, makes sure that children can read when they complete school, works with private industry to ensure enough jobs for those who want to work, and keeps the streets safe, both day and night."

Davisson and his wife, Beverly, reside at 2851 Rollinghills Drive. They have three adult children, Gary, (production manager of the Star-Courier), Diann, and Darla (Mrs. David Getchell), and one grandson, Rusty.

A graduate of Pepperdine College in Los Angeles with a degree in Business Administration, Davisson is a veteran of both World War II and the Korean Conflict. He retired from the Naval Reserve as a lieutenant commander with 14 years of service to his country.

"My campaign is going to be run on a one-to-one basis enlisting the help of the people of the district," says Davisson.

Persons interested in working on his grass roots campaign should call Davisson at 524-0414.

Landfields Place In Off- Road Race

Father and son, Dick and Matt Landfield, Yorba Linda residents, both placed in the recent 400 Off-Road Race held at Parker, Arizona.

Landfield senior, in a class seven off-road racer, came in fifth and son Matt, 18 on a '76 Yamaha, also placed fifth in motorcycles class 20.

Other Placentia and Yorba Linda drivers were not listed in the final results. Landfield is owner of Fairway Ford, Placentia.

Schools Seek Administrator

An Assistant Superintendent of Instructional Services is being sought by the Placentia Unified School District. Acting Superintendent now is Dr. Marvin Stewart.

The Placentia district is also advertising for an elementary school principal, with applicants to be limited to personnel within the system. The school vacancy was not named.

New Tool Is A Life Saver

The pretty blond woman completely trapped in her badly wrecked car with a child and dog, was too hurt and frightened to be of much assistance to her rescuers.

What extricated her from the wreckage and saved her life was a 65-pound contraption hooked up to a five horse-power marine motor and hydraulic fluid.

The tool has been nicknamed Jaws of Life and it can move the steel in a car about like wax.

The accident involving the pretty blond mother took place in Brea but the Jaws of Life are now a part of standard equipment at Fire Station No. 34 in Placentia.

Demonstrations were in progress this past week, showing firemen how to use the contraption, which can exert 10,000 pounds of pressure per square inch. Tops fly off of cars, door posts break, steering wheels snap and seats pop up when the tool's shattering power is applied.

Simple to use, the tool can be handled by one man, while another stands by for safety reasons, principally to guard against flying metal. The tool contains five tons of power and can be a lifesaver if available at the right time and place.

In the picture are Firefighter Tom O'Keefe and Tom Targer from the Hurst Company, manufacturers of the instrument.

Holt Resigns From Commission

Copy To The Courier

Mayor Lyons and Members of the Placentia City Council:

It has been with a great deal of pleasure that I have been able to serve both the City Council and the citizenry of our City of Placentia as a Commissioner on the Placentia Commercial and Industrial Development Commission.

I have learned a great deal from this service, plus my regular attendance at City Council meetings. This and other projects I have worked on within the City has further encouraged me to now follow through with my decision to seek a seat on the Placentia City Council.

With this decision to devote the many hours of service to our city as a Councilman, I respectfully resign my position on the Placentia Commercial and Industrial Development Commission. I thank you all for your faith and confidence in your original appointment to the Commission.

Looking forward to serving with you on the Placentia City Council, I remain,

Respectfully,
Donald A. Holt, Jr.
Commissioner, City of Placentia earing and right of way (1973-74); $80,000 (1974-75) and $30,000 (1975-76).

The city has requested from the county an additional $250,000 in the next two years for a total of $460,000. This would be roughly $33,500 over half of the $855,000 required for alignment four, the least expensive of the routes depicted.

Street construction at the earliest could not begin before the spring of 1978, Minamide explains, because of right of way acquisition, relocation assistance, utility undergrounding, accumulation of funding and the "myriad of details to be worked out."

"It is probable that the utility undergrounding, if authorized by council after public hearing, would take place jointly with street widening but it is premature to say for certain at this time," Minamide postulated.

"A very recent development is the possibility of receiving federal funds to finance 90 per cent of the project costs under the Department of Transportation 'Safer Roads Demonstration Program,' " Minamide continued. "Application has been made for these funds and we should get some idea of our chances for financing in about three months," he concluded.

The city council vote on phase two was 3 to 2 with Mayor Pro Tem Michael Callahan and Councilman George De Jesus dissenting.

Merchants-Chamber Breakfast

Another City Council-Business Community Forum will be held Thursday, February 26 at 7:30 a.m. at the Placentia-Linda Community Hospital, 1301 Rose Drive.

Mrs. Rose Lembke, president of the Placentia Chamber of Commerce, hosts for the event, said that coffee and doughnuts will be served.

Purpose of the forum is to give members of the business community an opportunity to discuss business problems with Mayor Lyons and members of the Placentia City Council. Anyone interested in attending may call the chamber office 528-1873 by February 23 for reservations.

MISS PLACENTIA

Heidi Liebl, Miss Placentia, will be one of the participants in the 1976 Miss Orange County Pageant to be held Thursday, February 26 in Plummer Auditorium, Fullerton. Tickets can be purchased for $3.

More Smoke Than Meets The Eye

A story in the February 11, 1976 Placentia Courier, concerning smoking privileges in the Placentia Unified School District's three high school campuses, carried the statement that PUSD Trustee John Balducci is the only member of the school board who smokes.

Balducci says it is not so. A majority of the board's members, but not all, smoke at one time or another. This has been confirmed by another board member.

Balducci is the only one who smokes publicly at board meetings. The Courier regrets the error.

Candidates Statements

Robert Davis Seeks Office

Most of us have an image in our mind of what the "typical politician" looks like. How he thinks. How he acts. And, we are probably all quite correct.

I am Robert E. Davis. I am 51. I am a 12 year resident and businessman of Placentia. I am not a politician.

Perhaps I'm not even typical.

But, because I am a person afflicted with that malady known as "getting involved," because I have a good record of service to my community, and because I have the ability and the time I want very much to be your representative on the Placentia City Council.

I also have questions about the leadership of our city. I question decisions made by the City Council. I question some large expenditures. I feel many times that answers provided by city government are vague and ambiguous.

I also love this community and its people, and I want Placentia to be as good as it can possibly be. If that sounds "corny" I can't help it. It's the way I feel.

I know I would be a good city councilman.

I know also that "I" is the least most important word in the English language, and that "We" is the most important word. As your city councilman "We" will have a voice in the future of Placentia.

Respectfully request your serious consideration when you vote April 13.

Robert Bircher Lists Goals

Placentia Planning Commissioner Robert Bircher has announced he will be a candidate for Placentia City Council in the April elections.

In making his announcement, Bircher stated that he has been urged by people throughout the community to enter the race. "It is gratifying to know that the policies I have advocated as a member of the planning commission have brought forth this wide-spread support. Being a member of the planning commission has exposed me to the major problems facing our city and has enabled me to participate in the establishment of policy which will take us toward the solution of these problems."

During his five years as a member of the planning commission Bircher took an active role in the development of the Placentia General Plan including: Land Use Element, Public Safety Element, Capital Improvement Element, Social Services Element, Recreation Element, Open Space and Conservation Element.

As a member of the commission Bircher served as Chairman, Vice-Chairman and was Chairman of sub-committees.

The city has an adopted "Blueprint" for industrial development in Placentia. "I feel we should actively pursue the implementation of this adopted plan and take greater strides to attract industry and business to Placentia. Good clean industry and business in Placentia will create job opportunities for our residents and contribute substantially to tax revenue while spreading the tax load, relieving the homeowner of burdensome levies."

Bircher indicated some possible methods to attract commerce and industry would be to "work with the Placentia Chamber of Commerce Industrial Committee and the City of Placentia Industrial Commission, providing assistance to commercial and industrial concerns wanting to locate in our city through street improvements, listings of lands available for development, and co-ordinating efforts between prospective developers and land-owners."

Responsible utilization of taxes through "careful and critical review of the city budget, re-assess our methods of delivering municipal services, the discovery of new methods to provide better and more economical services to the citizens of Placentia" are major points of his platform.

Discussing his goals as a city councilman Bircher stated "Each councilman should be dedicated to the principle of working together toward common goals and objectives for the betterment of the entire community. Restoration of public confidence in the city council is of paramount importance."

"As a member of the Placentia City Council I will be dedicated to provide compatible land uses to insure a balanced residential, business and industrial community." Providing housing for a broad cross-section, low density development and controlled growth are also stressed.

"There are many more issues which are of concern and I shall attempt to discuss them during the course of the campaign."

Robert Bircher, a native Orange County, his wife Lilly, daughters Teresa, age 18 and Deborah, age 13 are thirteen year residents of Placentia. Bircher is a Manufacturing Manager for a precision sheetmetal fabrication company in Santa Ana.

SALARIES

The Placentia Unified School District reports that a survey is now being conducted in unified districts throughout Orange and Los Angeles counties on fringe benefits and salaries, including extra duty pay, for all classes and levels of personnel. Salary negotiations in PUSD are anticipated this year.

KATIE'S COLUMN

DOWN ON THE FARM

by Kay Starr

We had some help in getting it to rain. "Sweet Dick" Whittington of KFI and the "Eye in the Sky", Bruce Wayne, combined their talents to seed the clouds over the southern area to bring us the much needed moisture.

I listened to the whole procedure on my trusty transistor radio as I went about snipping and clipping the pine trees. Dick and Bruce scored direct results with the salted and dried ice cubes.

So far the rain has been gentle enough to keep from washing away the hillsides. Some of the tree growers who are in burned-over areas were worried that any hard rains would cause slides. Now if there is a little sun and a space between storms, maybe the grass seed will sprout and put some roots into the earth to hold it in place.

I've noticed enough blue sky to make a Dutchman a pair of breeches, so, according to the old New York superstition, we should have some sunny weather.

My old trusty transistor gets carried around in the pocket so I have to pin it in. This stills allows the pine needle clippings to drop into the pocket, and even find their way into the radio.

If I am in a hurry, and I usually am, I forget to empty the needles out of the pocket and just toss the shirt directly into the washing machine. I must say that I have the loveliest pine-scented clothes, a really pleasant odor and a welcome relief from lemon or strawberry.

The radio doesn't work so well with needle interference so it has to be cleaned periodically.

The trees don't pay much attention to what I wear which is usually ratty old stuff that has seen better days. But I have been noticing the new fashion lines being shown in Europe and here.

What can you say about them, except spare me from having to wear them? Most of them are a little too much haute couture, so I've decided to continue wearing my own line, early Salvation Army. (Goes with my Army boots.)

Some grower friends took me out to a beautiful old resort in the Beaumont area, Highland Springs Spa. We had a guided tour of the facilities, looking at everything with an eye to holding our September state meeting at the hotel.

There is everything there—swimming pool, heated baths, tennis courts, riding stables, dining rooms and quaint little bungalows as well as the more modern rooms.

What a place to go to get away from it all. Lake Perris was visible on the way, and also the burned hills. The spa is located on 1000 acres right at the edge of Cherry Valley, a great place for a meeting, except they were all booked up for September. Maybe next time.

Fractometer Yields Secrets Of Tobacco Flavor.

Researchers use smoke analysis to isolate key flavor ingredients of tobacco—low tar MERIT with 'Enriched Flavor' achieved.

Not all ingredients of tobacco in cigarette smoke deliver the same amount of taste.

Or tar.

That's what researchers at Philip Morris discovered using an analytical fractometer to "crack" cigarette smoke down into its various parts.

Relying on this very sensitive, very special instrument, over 2000 separate ingredients were isolated and analyzed.

What this analysis revealed was startling:

There are ingredients in cigarette smoke—key flavor-rich ingredients—that deliver taste way out of proportion to tar.

Ingredients that, when packed into a tobacco blend, result in a cigarette that delivers extraordinary flavor without the usual corresponding increase in tar.

The discovery is called 'Enriched Flavor.' It comes in the tobacco of a remarkable new cigarette: MERIT.

'Enriched Flavor' is extra flavor. Natural flavor. Flavor that can't burn out, can't fade out, can't do anything but come through for you.

In fact, MERIT delivers the flavor of cigarettes having more tar.

Up to 60% more tar.

Yet MERIT has only 9 mg. of tar. Lower than 98% of all cigarettes being sold today.

If you're looking to become a low tar smoker, or don't particularly enjoy the taste of the low tar brand you smoke now—you'll be interested.

Taste-Tested By People Like You

9 mg. tar MERIT was taste-tested against five current leading low tar brands ranging from 11 mg. to 15 mg. tar.

Thousands of filter smokers were involved, smokers like yourself, tested at home.*

The results were conclusive:

Even if the cigarette tested had 60% more tar than MERIT, a significant majority of all smokers tested reported new 'Enriched Flavor' MERIT delivered more taste.

Repeat: delivered more taste.

In similar tests against 11 mg. to 15 mg. menthol brands, 9 mg. tar MERIT MENTHOL performed strongly too, delivering as much—or more—taste than the higher tar brands tested.

You've been smoking "low tar, good taste" claims long enough. Now you've got the cigarette. MERIT. Incredible smoking pleasure at one of the lowest tar levels in smoking today—only 9 mg. tar. From Philip Morris.

The Valencia Tigers will be made up of ten juniors, two sophomores, and four seniors.

I interviewed Coach Boring and he said "We are counting heavily on

The two sophomores on the team are Kelly Rojas at short, and Tony Delone, an outfielder. The seniors are Doug Braddus, pitcher, Roy Ackerman, outfield, Chuck Melkis, outfield and second baseman Smith.

"Our goal this year is to improve our record from last year, we look to improve our hitting. We didn't hit too well last year. Our pitching last year was good. We only gave up about three runs a game. We could have a winning season, depending on how badly the players want to win."

The coaches this year are coach John Winek for the J.V. team, coach Kenny Quinn for the freshmen and Boring for varsity.

Boring feels that this year's team has more power, improved hitting, average speed, better pitching and sharper defense than last year.

Boring added, "Although all the high school teams are going to be tough to beat especially Sonora, I feel we will have a winning season."

Messiah Doves Perform

The musical story of a boy who couldn't tell the truth will be told by a choir of second through sixth graders at Messiah Lutheran Church, 4861 Liverpool, Yorba Linda, at 3 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 22.

"And That's the Truth," a musical by Flo Price, will be performed by the 25-voice Messiah Doves, directed by Dennis Wire, the church's youth director.

Playing the part of Peter, the boy who couldn't keep from telling lies, is Becky Van Bibber. Other leading cast members are Charlie Bigham as the little brother, Natalie Amundson as the sensible older sister, Christine McDonald as the mother and John Broughton as the Father.

Also in the cast are Sandy Champlin, Christine Dyas, Jenny Forkey, Wade Hauptmeier, Shawn Mann, and Mike Van Bibber. Julie Forkey is accompanist.

"This musical is especially appropriate for Washington's Birthday, because it tells the trouble a child can have when he doesn't tell the truth and gives a solution," Wire explained.

The public is invited to attend the performance free of charge.

McClain Lecture

Where in the world is God?

This question will be explored in a public address to be given in Yorba Linda by Thomas A. McClain, C.S.B., a Christian Science lecturer and teacher from Chicago.

The lecture will be given at the Yorba Linda District

Library all purpose room, at 8 p.m. on February 26.

"We all experience moments in our life when we despair of finding good," Mr. McClain will state. "If we're inclined to attribute the good we seek to a spiritual source, or supreme being, we may wonder if God has forgotten us, or if we've lost the way of finding Him."

McClain, who has lectured throughout Europe, Asia, North America and South America, has been invited to speak here by the Christian Science Society, Yorba Linda.

A newspaper executive at one time in his native state of Kentucky, McClain entered the public practice of Christian Science in 1950.

He has been a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship since 1962, serving from 1969 to 1972 as Manager of the Board of Lectureship. He became a teacher of Christian Science in 1964. McClain's lecture is open to the public without charge.

"Peggy's Pointers"

As you enter into the long-range project of decorating your home, you must plan to take things one step at a time. It is important to establish a set of priorities.

As we continue in the weeks ahead to explore ideas on decorating, try to keep in mind that I am just going from room to room in a typical house - each one is unique, and each has its own priorities.

An entry way is usually the point of departure for several areas - it is also the point of transition for colors and themes. For instance, suppose the entry opens on one side to the living room, and on the other side, to the family room. The colors you choose for the entry must blend with the colors in the living room as well as the family room. The better the color flow, the more unified the areas will look. If your living room is done in soft greens, and the family room is more to the browns, then it would be good to bring the areas together with a wallpaper which has both green and brown in it.

Stephen D. Thomas, having qualified as a California Certified Nurseryman, was awarded his credentials by the California Association of Nurserymen at the monthly meeting of C.A.N.'s Orange County Chapter.

According to Tom Stribling, the Nurserymen's Certification Board Chairman, there are now 778 certified nurserymen and women in the state of California.

Thomas, a resident of Yorba Linda, graduated from Santa Maria High in 1963. He completed five years of college at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, obtaining his B.S. degree in Ornamental Horticulture. He is presently employed by Irvine Nursery of Irvine, Ca.

The designation of CCN professionalizes the image of the Retail Nurseryman. It is a status not only within the Nursery Industry but it informs the public that the Certified Nurseryman is qualified to help them achieve the gardening results they desire in their garden and community.

Prior to becoming certified, Thomas had to have worked in a C.A.N. member retail firm for one full year or 2,080 hours cumulative part/time. He, then, passed a comprehensive four-hour examination testing his knowledge in three different areas: Landscape design, plant identification, and questions on soils, fertilizers, insecticides, nursery industry laws and regulations to name a few.

Controlled action paintings, oil on canvas, are the creations of Lucille Humphreys, of Fullerton, artist of the month for February at Yorba Linda library.

She has been painting for over 11 years, and has studied with Roger Armstrong and Thelma deGoode Smith.

The library art exhibits are a project of the Yorba Linda Woman's Club. Anyone interested in showing may contact Mrs. B. V. Kemp, 528-7659 or Mrs. Roy Knight, 528-7401.

Jazz Men

Compete With Mickey Mouse

Mickey Mouse will have to share the Magic Kingdom spotlight Saturday, February 21 with the Fullerton College Jazz Ensemble.

Under the leadership of instructor Terry Blackley, the 21-member musical aggregation will take over Disneyland's Carnation Plaza for an 11 a.m. featured attraction presentation.

Among highlights of the 40-minute jazz will be Fullerton's Jeri Hagen, offering a special vocal arrangement of "My Funny Valentine;" "Legend of the One Eyed Sailor," featuring tenor saxman Don Trimble of Anaheim and trumpeter Bobby Mustol, Fullerton; and "Bunch of Blues," spotlighting Placentia trombonist Gary Leacock.

Animal Fair At El Camino

Art and food will highlight the first annual Animal Fair 'N Feast at El Camino Real High School, 1351 E. Orangethorpe Ave., Placentia, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Thursday, February 19.

A spaghetti dinner will be served from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. and will include all the spaghetti, salad and garlic bread diners can eat, according to Peggy McIntosh, art teacher coordinating the event. Home economics students in Karen Davis' class will prepare the food.

The art exhibit will include paintings, pottery and a display of ceramic animals made by students and faculty members at El Camino. All work will be for sale, and people are invited to bring a tee shirt to be silkscreened, Ms. McIntosh said.

Other student activities planned for the evening are a bake sale, which will continue throughout the evening, plays, guitar music and student demonstrations in ceramics, silkscreen and painting media.

HAND TO THE WHEEL creates a variety of fascinating objects which can be viewed by visitors to El Camino Real High School's first annual Animal Fair 'N Feast, which will be held Thursday, February 19. Along with the art exhibit, a spaghetti dinner will be available to guests between 6:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. The student at left is Scott Ayotte and at the wheel Terry Horsley with teacher Peggy McIntosh.

which will begin at 7 p.m. Tickets for the dinner are available for $1.50 donation from El Camino students or by calling the school at 524-8350. The public is invited to come anytime during the evening.

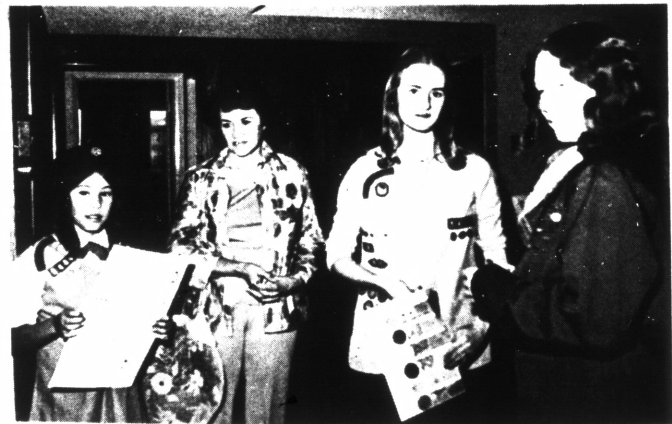

Girl Scouts Sell Cookies

February 20 to March 1 are the order taking dates for the 1976 Cookie Sale of the Girl Scout Council of Orange County.

Junior, Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts will ring doorbells of all the people in Orange County, while the younger Brownies will phone friends and family members to make this the biggest cookie sale ever!

The cookie sale is the major fund-raising event of the Girl Scout Council each year. Troops earn part of the proceeds for their treasuries; part is used for capital development - cookie earnings bought the Council's 700 acre Camp Joe Scherman in the San Jacinto Mountains above Idyllwild. And part is used to supplement income from United Funds and Sustaining Membership Enrollment.

Other bonuses for the girls are special patches, and camperships - both full and partial for Summer '76. "Again the girls will be taking orders for all the Burly cookie varieties including the ever-popular Chocolate Mint and the hors d'oeuvre specialty Sesame Crisp," said local chairmen Beverly Clemmer and Lavina Smith. "But perhaps the best news of all is there is no price increase this year. The public has

Judy Behle Wins Honor

Judy Behle, sixth grade teacher at Wagner Elementary School in Placentia, was named Outstanding Young Educator in California in the annual competition sponsored by the Jaycees.

Her win is the second time the honor has come to a teacher in the Placentia Unified School District. In 1973, Carol Downey, a teacher at Ruby Drive Elementary School, was named the state's Outstanding Young Educator and in 1974, Mary Dalessi, also a Ruby Drive teacher, was the state second runner-up.

Runner-up to Mrs. Behle in the state finals is Paul Edmiston, a junior high school biology teacher from Alameda. Other finalists honored at the state Jaycee convention last weekend were Gary Goddard, fifth grade teacher from Upland; Maura Mattson, a high school math teacher from Tustin, and Susan Vening, a junior high physical education teacher from Anaheim. Candidates were nominated by teachers and screened by local Jaycee units, which selected entries for the state competition, explained Bob Cohen, a member of the Placentia

AN OUTSTANDING TEACHER, Mrs. Judy Behle, was rated first in the state of California in recent competition sponsored by the Jaycees. Here she is shown in front of Wagner Elementary School, where she teaches sixth grade, with Wagner principal Kenneth Lorge.

After local Outstanding Young Educators were screened at the state level, finalists were interviewed by a panel of judges, who included Dr. Richard Clowes, superintendent of L.A. County Department of Education; Tom Barkelew, superintendent of Centinela Valley School District; Paul Bruce, professor of education at California State University at San Diego; and Laverie Lokke, teacher at Mesa College in San Diego representing the National Education Association.

Mrs. Behle has been a teacher at Wagner Elementary School since 1963, taking a four-year leave when her three sons were born.

She has been active in school and community activities, working with the Placentia Unified Education Association, including a term as secretary; and Wagner PTA, which awarded her an Honorary Life Membership in 1973. She worked on the school district's consumer education task force during the past year.

She is co-founder of the Teen Scene program for the City of Placentia and she and her husband Roger organized junior and senior high youth groups at Valencia United Methodist Church, where they are youth leaders and counselors.

During two summers she worked as a volunteer counselor for the Albert Sitton Home in Orange.

Mrs. Behle lives in Placentia with her husband and three sons, Roger, 8, Curt, 7, and Aaron, 5.

Dancing Permit Denied

A use permit to allow dancing on a 100 square foot floor, already serviced by a juke box, at the Shelter in the Stonewood Shopping Center, Placentia, was expected to be heard Tuesday night by the Placentia City Council.

The permit for dancing was refused by the city's planning commission, after several neighbors appeared and stated their concern for parking problems and possible noise.

Shelter owner, Gus Tamer explained that the beer bar was small and music from the juke box already was allowed. Couples now dance to the music and Tamer is seeking to make the dancing legal, he explained.

The bar is open seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 2 a.m. (Sunday 11 a.m. to 2 a.m.). Sandwiches are the only food served and customers are allowed to play pool.

Tamer explained to commission members that he has no plans for live music because of the limited space. The commission ruled against the dancing permit 4 to 3.

Championship On The Line For El Dorado

TWO POINTS--El Dorado's Ken Dressel puts one up as teammate Blake Withers and Canyon's Tom Clark and Frank Lindsey await the outcome. Dressel hit so no rebound action was necessary.

by Brian Hilderbrand
El Dorado's Golden Hawk basketball team has, for the fifth consecutive year, assured themselves of a berth in the CIF 2A playoffs. The Hawks accomplished this feat by edging the Canyon Comanches, 58-57, before a capacity crowd in the Comanches gym.

El Dorado upset the team that was involved in the three-way tie for first place in Orange League. If the Hawks can beat Brea this Tuesday, and Canyon should beat Sonora, with whom the Hawks are now tied for first, El Dorado will be the sole league champions. If Sonora wins the match with Canyon, El Dorado and Sonora will be co-champions.

Blake Withers' two free throws with 20 seconds left in the game brought El Dorado back from a 57-56 deficit to gain the lead and win the game, 58-57. Withers finished the night with 10 points. Rory Lovell had high game for the Hawks with 25 points. Lovell also grabbed 14 rebounds.

The Hawks took the ball down court and Withers drew the foul. He calmly sank two charity shots to put DOUBLE TEAMED--Canyon's Conrad Byars finds the going tough as the Hawks Rory Lovell and Mario Herbst keep the defensive pressure high in Friday's basketball game. The well matched teams fought long and hard in their bids for league dominance, each losing by one point on the home court and fouls playing a major role in each game.

Ken Dressel tied the game on a free throw with 1:04 showing on the clock, 56-56. With 29 seconds left on the clock, Tom Clark of the Comanches put his team out in front once more on a free throw. He made only one of a two-shot situation to make the score 57-56.

the Hawks out in front for good, 58-57.

El Dorado was 23 for 43 off the floor, and 12 for 13 from the line. Rory Lovell was high scorer for ED with 25 points, Withers had 10, both Jim Boyd and Jim Babcock added six points.

Canyon was 25 for 62 from the floor, and 7 for 16 from the line. Tim Shaw led all scorers with 27 points and 14 rebounds. Clark had Here Chris Brusa reaches for one and solidly connects. Placentia's playing fields will soon be dotted with an array of bright uniforms as the Little Leaguers complete their sign-ups and tryouts.

Friars Win A Little

Servite's Friars won one and lost one last week with a 61-56 loss to St. Anthony Friday night, following a 70-64 win Tuesday against Bishop Amat.

The Friday squabble saw St. Anthony penetrate the Friar's zone defense and the outcome left the Friars tied for fourth place in the Angelus League.

Servite was hurt further in the game when the two top scorers, Rich McElrath and Robbie Day both fouled out during the action.

Tuesday night was better for the Friar cagers with McElrath and Tim Mazy combining for 39 points as the Friars won it by six points. The Friars had a scheduled appointment with St. Paul Tuesday night.
